Please please don't allow telemarketers to start calling again. It is so nice not to be bothered at all different times of day. It's giving us a say in if we are bothered or not. People don't have to put their name and phone number on a list if they don't want to. It helps the ones of us that don't want these phone calls.